Revenue accelerated for the 11th qtr in a row to +85% on op margins of 60%. With 2026 rev growth guidance raised to +71% and op margins raised to 58%, PLTR is the best growth + margin story in sw. However, to generate a compelling return, shares have to grow into its current valuation.

Key Takeaways

- Palantir accelerated growth for the 11th quarter in a row to +85% YoY from +70% in Q4
- Strength was driven by US commercial which grew +133% down from +137% in Q4 and government which accelerated to +76% from +66% last quarter
- FY26 revenue growth outlook was raised to +71% from +61 which assumes at least +120% growth in U.S. commercial, up from +115% prior
- Despite best-in-class fundamental, muted market reaction to both 4Q25 and 1Q26 results suggest shares need to grow into current valuation to get rewarded
- Maintain EW and $205 target based on 44x CY30 FCF/share of $6.68 and discounting back at a 13% WACC

Monumental Numbers, Muted Stock Reaction. Palantir delivered its fastest revenue growth as a public company with revenue accelerating for the 11th quarter in a row to +85% YoY from +70%/+63%/+48% Q4/Q3/Q2 – well ahead of consensus looking for growth of +74%. Robust revenue growth translated to impressive operating margin performance as opex grew just +35% YoY against revenue growth of +85% resulting in operating margin expansion of 1,650 bps to 60%. Metrics that further improved in 1Q26 vs. 4Q26 include: Rule of 40 (revenue growth plus operating margin) which increased to 145% from 127%;, U.S. government revenue which grew +84% YoY from +66%, International Commercial which grew +26% from +7%, International Government which grew +50% from +43%, net dollar retention which improved to 150% from 139% and net customer adds which increased by 53 from 43 last quarter. Likely reflecting the law of large numbers several metrics slowed in Q1 vs. Q4 but from very high levels including: U.S. Commercial (+133% YoY from +137%), RPO growth (+134% from +136%), RPO

Updated 2026 Outlook Screens Conservative. Looking to FY26, the company raised its 2026 revenue growth outlook to +71% from +61% prior based on revenue of $7,650-$7,662 billion – +6.5% raise at the midpoint. The midpoint of the FY26 outlook calls for operating margin of 58% (vs 57.5% prior) which topped consensus looking for operating margin of 57.6%. Underpinning management's guidance for total revenue growth of +71% in 2026, is the outlook for U.S. commercial to grow +120% vs. +115% prior (and from +109% in 2025) to reach $3,224 billion. Furthermore, full year guidance targets adjusted free cash flow of $4.2-$4.4 billion – up from $3.9-$4.1 billion implying a margin of 56%. For Q2, management expects total revenue of $1,797-$1,901 billion implying YoY growth of +79%. Using the high end of FY26 revenue guidance, this implies revenue in +63% YoY growth in 2H26 which screens conservative given that 1H26 is poised to grow by more than +80% despite tougher compares in the back half of the year.

Market Reaction to Exceptional Results Point to Valuation That Is Not Yet Cheap Enough, Keeping Us EW. Despite impressive top-line and bottom-line results and upward forward estimates revisions, shares remain relatively flat in the after hours market. This signals to us that expectations remain high and that valuation may not be seen as attractive enough with shares trading ~34x CY27 sales and ~56x CY27 FCF with peak growth likely approaching or having already materialized. This mostly reflects the law of large numbers and we think if execution sustains at current levels, it will be a matter of time before Palantir grows into a more compelling valuation.

Raising Our Estimates and Maintaining Our $205 PT. With strong outperformance and momentum poised to continue, we raise our 2026-2028 revenue growth forecast to +71%/+45%/+40% from +61%/+45%/+35% previously, while keeping our operating margins largely unchanged. As a result, our 2027/2028 FCF estimates rise to $6.6/$9.6 billion from $6.2/$8.7 billion. We maintain our price $205 price target applying a 44x multiple (vs 55x prior) on our 2030 FCF/share estimate of $6.68 and discount back to 2027 using a WACC of 13%. Our PT is based on a 44x CY30 FCF multiple, or a 1.12x growth-adjusted multiple, generally in line with large cap median at 1.14x.

44x EV/CY30 FCF/sh of $6.68B (1.12x EV/FCF/G, generally inline with Large Cap Software median 1.14x on CY27). Revenue grows at a 41% 5yr CAGR through CY30 to reach $25.3B, while operating margin reaches 66% in CY30 from 50% in CY25, yielding FCF of $16.6B (66% margin) or $6.68/share. We apply a 44x FCF multiple to our FCF/sh estimate, discount it back at an 13% WACC and add back $2.8 net cash per share to arrive at our $205 PT.

EQUAL-WEIGHT THESIS

Palantir's technical capabilities, coupled with a forward deployed engineer model, allow customers to realize early success on their GenAI initiatives. Yet part of what has made Palantir an attractive partner is the spread in terms of the relative capabilities/skillset that Palantir brings to bear with respect to technology and human capital compared to the capabilities of its end customers, which in our view is near its peak in this stage of the cycle. We give Palantir a lot of credit for the inflection and expense discipline, which we expect to continue, reflected in our above-consensus estimates and see potential for the valuation premium to sustain in the absence of a negative catalyst.

RISKS TO PT/RATING

RISKS TO UPSIDE

- Government spending picks back up;
- AIP product cycle drives growth in the Commercial business;
- Palantir becomes the 'de facto' data solution for the government.

RISKS TO DOWNSIDE

- Reliance on large deals with few customers drives uneven financial performance;
- Margin expansion slows, further stoking the investor 'software or consulting?' debate.

STOCK RATINGS

Morgan Stanley uses a relative rating system using terms such as Overweight, Equal-weight, Not-Rated or Underweight (see definitions below). Morgan Stanley does not assign ratings of Buy, Hold or Sell to the stocks we cover. Overweight, Equal-weight, Not-Rated and Underweight are not the equivalent of buy, hold and sell. Investors should carefully read the definitions of all ratings used in Morgan Stanley Research. In addition, since Morgan Stanley Research contains more complete information concerning the analyst's views, investors should carefully read Morgan Stanley Research, in its entirety, and not infer the contents from the rating alone. In any case, ratings (or research) should not be used or relied upon as investment advice. An investor's decision to buy or sell a stock should depend on individual circumstances (such as the investor's existing holdings) and other considerations.

Global Stock Ratings Distribution

(as of April 30, 2026)

The Stock Ratings described below apply to Morgan Stanley's Fundamental Equity Research and do not apply to Debt Research produced by the Firm.

For disclosure purposes only (in accordance with FINRA requirements), we include the category headings of Buy, Hold, and Sell alongside our ratings of Overweight, Equal-weight, Not-Rated and Underweight. Morgan Stanley does not assign ratings of Buy, Hold or Sell to the stocks we cover. Overweight, Equal-weight, Not-Rated and Underweight are not the equivalent of buy, hold, and sell but represent recommended relative weightings (see definitions below). To satisfy regulatory requirements, we correspond Overweight, our most positive stock rating, with a buy recommendation; we correspond Equal-weight and Not-Rated to hold and Underweight to sell recommendations, respectively.

Stock Rating Category	Coverage Universe		Investment Banking Clients (IBC)			Other Material Investment Services Clients (MISC)
	Count	% of Total	Count	% of Total IBC	% of Rating Category	Count	% of Total Other MISC
Overweight/Buy	1546	42%	467	51%	30%	709	44%
Equal-weight/Hold	1568	43%	358	39%	23%	715	44%
Not-Rated/Hold	4	0%	0	0%	0%	1	0%
Underweight/Sell	555	15%	84	9%	15%	202	12%
Total	3,673		909			1627

Data include common stock and ADRs currently assigned ratings. Investment Banking Clients are companies from whom Morgan Stanley received investment banking compensation in the last 12 months. Due to rounding off of decimals, the percentages provided in the "% of total" column may not add up to exactly 100 percent.

Analyst Stock Ratings

Overweight (O). The stock's total return is expected to exceed the average total return of the analyst's industry (or industry team's) coverage universe, on a risk-adjusted basis, over the next 12-18 months.

Equal-weight (E). The stock's total return is expected to be in line with the average total return of the analyst's industry (or industry team's) coverage universe, on a risk-adjusted basis, over the next 12-18 months.

Not-Rated (NR). Currently the analyst does not have adequate conviction about the stock's total return relative to the average total return of the analyst's industry (or industry team's) coverage universe, on a risk-adjusted basis, over the next 12-18 months.

Underweight (U). The stock's total return is expected to be below the average total return of the analyst's industry (or industry team's) coverage universe, on a risk-adjusted basis, over the next 12-18 months.

Unless otherwise specified, the time frame for price targets included in Morgan Stanley Research is 12 to 18 months.
